GREAT RENTAL POTENTIAL FOR A B&B BUSINESS

This large traditional property is located in the heart of the countryside village Urcal, offering the privacy of a detached property in a tranquil setting but have the local doctors practice, bar and restaurant within a minute walk. Also, only 10 minutes drive to the main town Huerca Overa.

Positioned on a corner plot, the L shaped property boasts large rooms, potential for up to 5 bedrooms as well as a separate annex.

The most surprising feature of this beautiful home is the internal courtyard and gardens. Inside of the property walls and fully fenced is the spacious terrace and courtyard with a built in barbecue / outside kitchen, a plunge pool and several fruit trees including olive, orange, peach and cherry.

2 large underground water tanks collect the rain water for water the gardens and the property is connect to the local mains water supply.

2 very large buildings which adjoin the house used to be animal housing but could easily be converted into additional accommodation or a pool house. Currently they are ideal for storage and a work shop.

A full external bathroom is perfect for people using the gardens and pool.

Parking is not an issue as there is road parking at the front door, 2 internal garages as well as a full gated driveway.

Internally the house consists of an entrance reception room, to the right there are 2 connecting bedroom that lead through into a fully fitted shower room.

A central dining room leads in to a further 2 bedrooms and a winter room with log fire.

Moving along the hallway is the family bathroom with corner bath, spacious kitchen with open fireplace, ample wall and floor units and a separate utility room.

The main lounge is a family room with a feature fireplace, kitchen and seating area, from here is what could be a 5th bedroom, dining room or formal lounge.
